

Bleeding and Shock

Across

1. A snug bandage to control bleeding (two words)
4. A type of shock when you lose excessive amounts of blood
6. The process by which blood thickens
11. Capillary bleeding usually flows this way
12. Used first to control bleeding () ()
14. If blood soaks through the bandage () more pads
15. A sign of shock when a person is unable to sit still

17. One cause of internal bleeding causing by direct trauma () ()

18. Type of bleeding that can be seen coming from a wound

Down

2. Failure to circulate oxygen-rich blood
3. The amount of blood circulating in the body is known as () ()
5. Loss of a large amount of blood in a short period of time
7. A sign of internal bleeding ()

8. This will help reduce swelling with a minor internal bleed () ()

9. These carry blood from the heart

10. These carry blood to the heart

13. Bleeding that occurs inside of the body

16. Arterial blood is under more pressure and will () from the wound