

Name: _____

Date: _____

Blood and Cardiovascular System Crossword

Across

- 2. oxygen rich blood flows away from the heart via the _____
- 5. the heart consists of two atria and two _____
- 6. meaning of the suffix -apheresis
- 7. blood is composed of cells such as erythrocytes, leukocytes and _____
- 14. also known as the "kissing disease"
- 17. meaning of the combining form sider/o
- 18. controls the amount of water in the blood
- 19. oxygen poor blood flows into the heart via this large vein
- 21. these stain red
- 23. fluid filled bag around the heart which acts as a shock absorber

- 25. a reduction in erythrocytes or hemoglobin in the blood
- 26. the main structure that pumps blood throughout the system
- 28. meaning of the prefix tetra-
- 29. the abbreviation DVT stands for deep vein _____
- 30. percent of erythrocytes in volume of the blood
- 32. nervous tissue along the septum between the two ventricles
- 33. white cells

Down

- 1. AML, CML, ALL and CLL are the four types of _____
- 3. also called phagocytes
- 4. red cells
- 8. EKG stands for _____

- 9. this number is recorded for blood pressure and is usually smaller
- 10. responsible for pumping blood through and out of the heart
- 11. type O blood is the universal _____
- 12. type of anemia; inability to absorb vitamin B12 into the blood
- 13. oxygen poor blood flows towards the heart via the _____
- 15. the top number recorded for blood pressure
- 16. also known as the SA node
- 20. smooth inside lining of the heart
- 22. meaning of the combining form sphygm/o
- 24. abnormal heart rhythm
- 27. type AB blood is the universal _____

- 31. a large elastic artery