

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Bocabulary for chapter 11

Across

- 4. The study of similar and differences among structures of living species
- 7. Occurs when the last individual organism of a species dies
- 9. Are body parts of organisms that are similar in structure and position but different in function
- 13. A slight difference in a inherited traits of individuals members of a specie
- 15. A fossil copy of as organisms in a rock
- 16. A person who studies plants and animals bbyoserving them

17. Is the persued evidence of the activity of an organism

18. The change over time in population of related organisms

Down

- 1. An adptation that enables a species to bled in whitt its enviornment
- 2. A chart that devide Earth history into different time units
- 3. Body parts that perform a similar function but different in structure
- 5. The breeding of organisms for ddesired characteristics
- 6. Body parts that have lost their original function trough evolution

8. Made up of all the fossils ever discovered on Earth

10. The reseamble of one species to another species

11. An inhereted trait that increasses on organisms chance of surviving and reproducing in its enviornment

12. In the progress by which populations of organisms whitt variations that helpnthem survive in their inviornment lives longer,competes better,and reproduce more than those that do not have the variation

14. The impression of an organism in a rock