

Bookworms Week 3

Across

2. a person who works in the courts to decide cases or to form opinions about

5. something that happens that is filled with emotion

8. a belief or custom that is handed down inside a group or culture

10. someone who doubts

11. to make something known to others

12. to join together

Down

1. to fall down quickly, usually a long distance

3. to move suddenly in pain or fear

4. not definitely decided; unsure

6. someone who judges whether something is good or not

7. to admit something is true

9. to say that something is not true