

Bootcamp Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. The choice of words someone used.
4. Similar vowel sound in a repetition.
6. A character that changes through out a story.
8. A very well developed character.
9. Not a very well developed character.
12. Emotional Appeal
13. Credibility
17. A literary work criticizing vices, stupidities, and follies.

18. The author slowly reveals the character using actions and interactions.

19. The final outcome.

20. A character that does not change through out a story.

Down

1. The character is being directly described or introduced.
3. The outcome was different than you expected.
5. To understand or explain something.

7. A device that hints coming events and build suspense and anxiety to the reader(s).

10. Logical appeal

11. Short amusing and interesting story about an incident or person.

14. Each aspect with a symbolic meaning outside of the tale.

15. Words place side by side balancing each other.

16. Words and phrases that create well formed sentences in language.

Word Bank

Situational Irony	Dynamic Character	Indirect Characterization	Logos
Foreshadowing	Anecdote	Interpret	Pathos
Allegory	Parallelism	Ethos	Satire
Flat Character	Syntax	Diction	Denouement
Direct Characterization	Round Character	Assonance	Static Character