

Brain disorders

Across

3. a disorder in which the immune system faults and targets the bodies healthy tissue

5. difficulty forming _____ is an example of a social impact

12. The neurotransmitter dysfunction of Parkinson's disease

13. Multiple Sclerosis

14. an auto-immune disorder damaging the myelin on neurons

15. patients with Parkinson's disease slowly lose _____ as their motor abilities worsen

16. an auto-immune disorder causing inflammation of the brain and resulting in frequent seizures

18. The neurotransmitter dysfunction of Alzheimer's disease

19. a neurodegenerative disorder of the brain where the hippocampus is severely impaired

Down

1. a psychological impact referring to thinking processes and memory

2. a surgical procedure in which one hemisphere of the brain is removed

4. language disorder which is characteristic of difficulty comprehending language, difficulty producing meaningful language, or difficulty producing fluent language

6. most well known impairment of Alzheimer's disease

7. characterised by progressive loss of dopamine-producing neurons

8. this disorder occurs most commonly in children, who tend to recover well from surgical treatment

9. impacts that relate to relationships with others and behaviours performed in group situations

10. a motor symptom of Parkinson's disease

11. reduced _____ is a psychological impact which may occur where one has a lowered sense of worth

17. patients with Alzheimer's Disease may experience a change in the nature and quality of social relationships as they lose key memories relating to their own _____