

Breast Cancer Terms To Know

Across

3. Small, bean-shaped structures that are part of the immune system and contain lymphocytes, which can trap cancer cells or bacteria traveling through the body in lymph fluid
6. a medical doctor who diagnoses and treats people with cancer
7. A condition of characterized by an abnormally low count of neutrophils, a type of white blood cell that helps fight infection
10. A measure, from one to four (I-IV), of the size and the extent of cancer
11. The return of cancer after a period of remission, usually a year or longer; may occur in the same place as the original cancer,

Down

1. Growth or disease that is mild, not progressive and not cancerous
2. The spread of cancer from the place of origin, through the lymphatic system to other organs or tissue of the body
4. A conventional medical treatment using drugs that kill cells that reproduce quickly, including cancer cells.
5. The removal and the examination of tissue for the purpose of diagnosing disease
8. a treatment plan that specifies the dosage, schedule and duration of treatment
9. A diverse group of illnesses characterized by the rapid reproduction of abnormal cells that invade normal tissue

Word Bank

Cancer

Neutropenia

Metastasis

Lymph nodes

Oncologist

benign

Chemotherapy

biopsy

Regimen

Recurrence

Stage