

British Marine Life Crossword

Across

2. Predatory snail - Favourite snack is Limpets
5. Flowering underwater plant. Found in shallow bays, easily damaged by anchoring boats.
7. Mythical name for shark egg cases.
8. Named after a bird because of their long neck. Small invertebrates often washed up attached to litter or boats.
10. Common crustacean, coloured like seaweed. You've probably caught one if you've gone crabbing.

12. Most common of 2 Species found in the UK. Fluffy white pups.

13. Most commonly sighted marine mammal in the UK. Live in family groups.

14. Common crustacean, looks like a cornish pasty. Yummy!

15. Sticks to rocks with strong, muscular foot. Flattened, cone shaped shell. Lives on the same place on a rock, creating a home scar.

Down

1. Small fish which uses its tail to hold onto seagrass. Males give birth to the live young.

3. Sea Slug with branching gills on the outside. Can absorb toxins from their food onto their skin to defend themselves against predators.

4. Edible marine plants that can form large underwater forests. Favourite feeding place of seals.

6. Normally have 5 arms, covered in tiny, flexible tube feet.

9. Predatory fish. Over 40 species in the UK. Lay eggs or have live young.

(do..do..do..do..doo.doo)

11. Related to corals, soft jelly-like body with long tentacles and a big mouth in the middle.