

Budgeting

Across

2. Expected at regular intervals and remains the same amount

8. An amount of money paid to an employee at a specific rate per hour worked

9. When your income exceeds your expenses and you have money left over

10. Cost that appears irregularly or that changes in amount

13. A financial plan of expected income and expenses

14. When your expenses exceed your income

Down

1. Financial plan where every dollar of income is allocated somewhere (spent, saved, or invested)

3. Money that is earned from work, investments, business, etc.

4. Total earnings before any deductions

5. Total earnings after payroll taxes and other deductions

6. Fixed amount of money paid to an employee for each pay period

7. Total value of money and other assets, minus any debt, also known as net worth

11. Purchases a person must have to live or succeed, bills that must be paid to remain in good standing

12. Products, services, or bills you are responsible for