

Building Materials

Across

4. Type of PPE
 8. A board, when laying flat, curves to the side creates this defect.
 9. Useful for creating holes.
 13. A common example of softwood.
 16. The woods moisture content is equal to its environment.
 18. Nails are known by this unit of weight.
 19. Best tool for making crosscuts and mitre-cuts

20. P.T. (Lumber)

21. Sheathing constructed by gluing together layers of veneers at right angles to each other.

Down

1. Broadleaf trees are also known as this.
 2. A common example of hardwood.
 3. OSB
 5. This cut is made across the grain.
 6. O.C.

7. This cut is made parallel to the grain.

10. Number of inches in 1 foot.

11. Pine, Spruce, Fir are trees that bear cones.

12. Useful for pounding nails.

14. A branch growing out from the tree trunk causes this wood defect in boards.

15. use this when ripping a board on the table saw

17. A board laying flat but bends upward from one end to the other is called this defect.