

Building Responsibility

Across

3. When you provide factual evidence to prove your point
6. Includes the reactions that the receiver gives the message offered by the sender
8. When you show the audience you have natural honesty about you
9. Any obstacle that gets in the way if effective communication
10. Conversation

Down

1. Being able to talk to yourself
2. When you appeal your audience to their sense of patriotism, family, justice, or the like
4. The process of sending and receiving messages, and it occurs whenever we express ourselves in a manner that is clearly understood
5. Takes any time messages are transmitted between two or more people
7. That which is sent or said
11. Refers to a person's sense if right and wrong