

Business

Across

- 4. pay based on a # of hrs worked
5. Skills related to job specific tools and tasks
6. Money taken out of an employee's pay
8. The amount of money you earn on the money you deposit
12. a specific task or stint of work
14. a department within a company that handles job openings for a business
16. a personal check that you write which the bank certifies to guarantee it is paid
17. A payment for labor or services performed

19. Checks that you give someone and that person has cashed it with the money withdrawal from your bank account

20. Personality traits that help an employer decide if your temperament suits a particular job

Down

1. Involves progressive or achievement in particular occupational areas

2. an amount paid for the use of someone else's money

3. Money deductions withheld from your pay for federal, state, local and medicare taxes

7. The amount of money that you made

9. Fees charged by a bank for services which are subtracted from balances.

10. A record of your gross pay , net pay and deductions

11. Gives an opportunity to let the employer know that you are interested in a job

13. when someone gives you a check

15. the amount of money will earn in interest

18. a fixed rate of pay for labor or services

21. A federal agency that insures bank money