

Business Finance

Across

3. something, typically money, that is owed or due

5. an amount of money owed for goods supplied or services rendered, set out in a printed or written statement of charges

11. the worth of something compared to the price paid or asked for it

14. without tax or other contributions having been deducted

15. money paid regularly at a particular rate for the use of money lent, or for delaying the repayment of a debt.

16. make (something needed or wanted) available to someone; provide

18. the capital raised by a business or corporation through the issue and subscription of shares

19. a list of goods sent or services provided, with a statement of the sum due for these; a bill.

Down

1. an estimate of income and expenditure for a set period of time

2. the sale of goods to the public in relatively small quantities for use or consumption rather than for resale.

4. an insistent and peremptory request, made as if by right

6. an insistent and peremptory request, made as if by right

7. one of the equal parts into which a company's capital is divided, entitling the holder to a proportion of the profits

8. the most important city or town of a country or region, usually its seat of government and administrative center.

9. require the payment of before it can be acquired or done

10. a situation involving exposure to danger

12. free from all charges or deductions

13. an entry recording an amount owed, listed on the left-hand side or column of an account

17. a list of goods sent or services provided, with a statement of the sum due for these; a bill