

Business Law

Across

1. The fraudulent appropriation of funds or other property by a person who was entrusted with the funds or property.
2. The monetary compensation given to a party at the end of a trial or other proceeding.
4. The process of resolving a dispute through the court system.
7. the act of forcefully and unlawfully taking personal property of any value from another
9. A written summary or statement prepared by one side in a lawsuit to explain its case to the judge.

10. statements by the plaintiff and the defendant that detail the facts, charges, and defenses of a case
12. A person who makes an offer.
13. The list of cases entered on a courts calendar and thus scheduled to be heard by the court.
15. The geographic district in which a legal action is tried and from which the jury is selected.
16. An approach to ethical reasoning in which an action is evaluated in terms of its consequences for those whom it will affect.
17. A computer program that is designed to block access to certain websites based on their content.

Down

3. A key word in a document that can serve as an index reference to the document.
5. procedurally, a plaintiffs response to a defendants answer.
6. Moral principles and values applied to social behavior
8. A person to whom an offer is made.
11. The intentional burning of a building
14. A wrong against society proclaimed in a statute and, if committed, punishable by society through fines, imprisonment, or death.