

Name: _____

Business Law

Across

2. When the offeree fails to accept an offer within the time specified
4. Actions or agreements intended to suppress or eliminate competition
5. An agreement by a person to encourage or support a lawsuit in which he or she has no legitimate interest
9. An invitation to negotiate
10. domination of a person's will by force or by threat of force or injury
14. intentional misstatement of a material fact
15. A mere expression of opinion
17. An agreement based on the uncertain outcome of some future event

18. An offeree's response to an offer in which the offeree rejects the original offer and at the same time makes a new offer.
20. A contract that is created entirely through conversation of the parties involved
21. A contract with several related parts, each of which can stand alone
22. A person to whom an offer is made.
23. meeting of the minds
24. unintentional misstatement of material fact

Down

1. In contract law, the withdrawal of an offer by an offeror. Unless the offer is irrevocable, it can be revoked at any time prior to acceptance without liability.

3. A person who is of legal age and normal mentality
6. A contract whose meaning is not determined by the conduct of the parties
7. purposely not disclosing material facts to a contracting party
8. The promises exchanged by parties to a contract
11. The requirement that a contract cannot violate the law
12. The practice of charging a higher interest rate than that permitted by law
13. A person who makes an offer.
16. The charge for the use of borrowed money
19. A government or parent firm that grants a monopoly to another