

Business Terms

Across

2. goals that can be achieved in a limited period of time and frequently lead to the achievement of a long term goal.

7. Inventory level at which a company would place a new order or start a new manufacturing run

8. A series of sequential steps taken by purchasing specialists to buy goods and services for a business

10. An unexpected happening that may result in an injury, loss, or damage

11. Flywheels, points of operation, frames, chains, belts

12. A strategic target that is projected to require significantly more time for completion than other business goals

Down

1. The form that a business fills out to order goods; may be the same as a purchase agreement or purchase contract

3. Federal government agency that writes and enforces safety and health standards for business

4. The buying of goods and services for a business

5. Fulfilling the requirement of the law

6. Freedom from danger, risks, or injury

9. The possibility of loss or gain