

C12 - Study 8

Across

2. Heavy straps passing over a mobile home and fastened to the foundations on either side or to the ground if the unit rests on piers or heavy timber.

5. A small farm operated for pleasure or supplemental income rather than for primary income is known as a _____ farm.

6. Individual ownership of a single unit in a multi-unit building or group of buildings, including a percentage interest in the part of the total property owned jointly by all unit owners is known as a _____.

7. A dwelling occupied or intended to be used as a recreational residence, not as a permanent residence occupied for only part of the year is known as a _____ dwelling.

8. A dwelling or apartment unit occupied or available for occupancy by persons other than the owner under a rental agreement is known as a _____ dwelling.

9. The areas of condominium property that are available for use by all unit owners, such as the lobby, hallways, elevators, gardens, swimming pools, and recreational areas.

10. A home distinguished by architectural design, custom features, and a high replacement value is known as a _____-_____ home.

Down

1. A corporation without share capital, created under provincial legislation and whose members are the condominium owners.

3. Manufactured housing, commonly called house trailers, usually placed in one location and left there permanently but retaining the ability to be moved, as required in many areas is known as a _____ home..

4. Manufactured housing that differs from the conventional mobile home in construction, materials, and foundations that is built in a factory and moved to the building site in large individual sections is known as a _____ home.