

Name: _____

CLABSI Prevention

Across

- 2. If a CHG disc is _____ with blood, it is important to perform a dressing change.
- 3. How often should primary tubing be changed?
- 4. How long do you scrub the hub before accessing a CVC or PIV?
- 6. How often should my patient get a CHG bath if they have a CVC?
- 10. If a dressing is _____, it is important to perform a dressing change.

12. How often should you change your CVC dressing?

13. How often should a central line dressing be assessed?

14. Do you use alcohol wipes or pre-antiseptics wipes for cleaning central line ports?

15. It is important for the CHG disc to be in complete contact with the skin 360 degrees to prevent _____ from entering the insertion site.

5. How often should secondary tubing be changed?

7. Is it appropriate to use Curoc caps on PIV lines if my patient's port is not accessed?

8. How often should CVC line indication be reviewed?

9. What is the scrub time when changing a femoral dressing?

11. Should a midline be maintained like a CVC or PIV?

Down

1. When cleaning a CVC site, how long is the dry time?

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-------------|-------------|-----------------|--------------|-----------|
| Every shift | 96 hours | 15 seconds | Daily | CVC |
| 60 seconds | 7 days | Yes | nonocclusive | saturated |
| 24 hours | Every shift | Pre-antiseptics | 2 minutes | bacteria |