

CM-2.02 Vocabulary

Across

- 1. 2 year college degree from a community college, university, college, or technical school. The recipient of an Associate Degree can transfer the credits toward a 4 year Bachelor's Degree.
- 4. a relationship in which two or more things are mutual or complementary, or one thing is caused by another
- 5. the wealth and resource of a country or region, especially in terms of the production and consumption of goods and services, careful management of available resource
- 9. an assistant or trainee working to gain practical experience in an occupation
- 17. extended period of negative economic activity; unemployment, declining income and production
- 21. a professional or industry certification proving a persons's qualifications, awarded for occupational competency typically by passing an exam
- 23. short - term experience that allows the student to follow an experienced worker and see the day - to - day activities of a particular career
- 24. financial aid that doesn't have to be repaid (unless, for an example, you withdraw from school and owe a refund)
- 25. educational programs that specialize in the skilled trades, applied sciences, modern technologies, and career preparation
- 27. federal student aid, a part of the U.S. department of education, is the largest provider of student financial aid in the nation, provides grants, loans, and work - study funds for college or career school
- 28. postsecondary institution offering a collection of degrees in one specific area; also an undergraduate division or school in university

- 29. the interdependent economies of the world nations, regarded as a single economics system
 - 30. a sharp increase in the costs of goods and services
 - 31. postsecondary school with up to 2 - year programs leading to certificates, diplomas, or associate degrees
 - 32. economy composed of many ethnic, as well as socioeconomic and gender, groups
- Down
- 2. an activity or role assigned to somebody or something
 - 3. the quality of being adequately or qualified in a skill or ability
 - 6. an transformation that occurs within an economy that either increases, sustains, or depletes its vitality
 - 7. one bound by legal agreement work for another for a specific amount of time in return for instruction in a trade, art, or business
 - 8. college program leading to a master's degree or doctoral degree; advanced study generally following a bachelor's degree
 - 10. a method or learning process where learners have ownership and control of their learning - they learn by their own actions and direct, regulate, and access their own learning
 - 11. postgraduate academic degree awarded by universities, highest level of academic degree. Everyone is familar with the medical doctor, who holds an M.D. (medical doctorate). But you can earn a doctorate in almost any subject area, doctor of philosophy, abbreviated as PHD
 - 12. done or carried out in accordance with established or prescribed rules
 - 13. not officially prepared, organized, or sanctioned

- 14. is a test developed and maintained by the United States of defense.
- 15. Advising, Placement, and Retention System - an assessment - advising program designed to identify the basic skill level of students as they enter two - year institution
- 16. 4 year college degree from a university/college earned by completing undergraduate coursework and are awarded in specific concentration.
- 18. the natural fluctuation of the economy between periods of expansion and contraction factors such as gross domestic product, interests rates, level of employment and consumer spending help to determine the current stage of the economic cycle
- 19. an official document that gives proof an details of something such as personal status, educational achievement, ownership, or authenticity
- 20. involves students being enrolled in two separate, academically related institutions
- 22. standardized written on performance test of knowledge, aptitude, values, etc.
- 26. the process or state of changing to fit a new environment or different conditions, or the resulting change