

CM 2.02 vocabulary

Across

1. Employee training at the place of work while he or she is doing the actual job.

4. A contribution of free labor, usually to a non-profit organization.

10. a practice test that measures the critical thinking, mathematical reasoning, and writing skills that students need to do college-level work.

11. economic activities belonging to or characteristic of a nation

14. stage in the economic cycle where employment and production begin to rise to normal levels after a slump.

17. A direction of movement

20. privately owned school that operates for profit for those seeking vocational training.

22. a vocational school, also called a trade school, is a higher-level learning institution that specializes in providing students with the vocational education and technical skills they need in order to perform the tasks of a particular job. Students typically earn a credential or a certificate

23. a sum of money charged for teaching or instruction by a school, college, or university.

24. the duties or activities that are part of a job or occupation

26. a feeling of enthusiasm, interest, or commitment that makes somebody want to do something, or something that causes such a feeling

27. economic activities belonging to or characteristic of a geographic region

28. A period of declining economic growth

29. general term used for two-year college which provide mostly employment-preparation skills for trained labor, such as welding, culinary arts and office management.

30. the continuing development of knowledge and skills that people experience after formal education and throughout their lives

Down

2. economic activities belonging to or characteristic of a state

3. Directed or guided by oneself, especially as an independent agent

5. a process or period in which something undergoes a change and passes from one state, stage, form, or activity to another

6. an academic degree from a college or university for those who complete at least one year of prescribed study beyond the bachelor's degree.

7. Unpaid experiences; students work to get experience, contacts, or help out. The experiences are not necessarily career related and not usually supervised by school personnel.

8. cost of housing and food while attending college or career school.

9. college program leading to an associate (2-year) or a bachelor's (4-year) degree; generally following high/secondary school.

12. economic activities of the locale in which you live

13. a collection of colleges, has undergraduate programs which award bachelor degrees and graduate program for masters' degrees and doctorates.

15. A short-term experience that allows the student to follow an experienced worker and see the day-to-day activities of a particular career.

16. special skills may be developed through educational programs in the armed services

18. a test that measures the critical thinking mathematical, reasoning, and writing skills students need to do college-level work.

19. borrowed money you must repay with interest.

21. stage in economic cycle, relatively low unemployment & high total income prevail, leading to high purchasing power - more spending.

25. Money awarded to students based on academic or other achievements to help pay for education expenses. Scholarships generally do not have to be repaid.