

Name: _____ Date: _____

*CNA*

- |                                                                                                                                                     |                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 1. What is the medical term for walking?                                                                                                            | A. chronic              |
| 2. What disease benefits from validation therapy, orientating, and use of familiar items?                                                           | B. aseptic              |
| 3. Inability to speak                                                                                                                               | C. dentures             |
| 4. Absence of breathing                                                                                                                             | D. basic needs          |
| 5. preventing infection; having a cleansing effect                                                                                                  | E. care plan            |
| 6. any item (handrails, grab bars, canes, wheelchairs) that is being used by or used in the care of a resident to promote their safety and function | F. diabetes             |
| 7. Temperature taken at the armpit                                                                                                                  | G. cyanosis             |
| 8. These are the things people cannot live without, such as food, clothing, and shelter.                                                            | H. diarrhea             |
| 9. a shallow vessel used by a bedridden patient for defecation and urination                                                                        | I. axillary temperature |
| 10. an emergency procedure for life support consisting of artificial respiration and manual external cardiac compression                            | J. Alzheimer's          |
| 11. a written plan for each resident created by a nurse; outlines the steps taken by the staff to help the resident reach his or her goals          | K. CPR                  |
| 12. how many cc's in an ounce                                                                                                                       | L. depression           |
| 13. Continuing for a long time Long-standing, constant. Opposite of acute                                                                           | M. 30                   |
| 14. A blue or gray color resulting from lack of oxygen in the body.                                                                                 | N. assistive device     |
| 15. another name for bed sore                                                                                                                       | O. ambulation           |
| 16. what are artificial teeth called                                                                                                                | P. bedpan               |
| 17. A prolonged feeling of helplessness, hopelessness, and sadness                                                                                  | Q. aphasia              |
| 18. A condition in which the body is unable to produce enough insulin, the hormone required for the metabolism of sugar                             | R. apnea                |
| 19. An abnormal, frequent discharge of fluid fecal matter from the bowel                                                                            | S. decubitus ulcer      |