

CNA Chapters 13,14,27,28,29

Across

- 2. Small sheet placed over the middle of the bottom sheet to keep mattress and bottom linens dry
- 4. Document which lists of care developed by the interdisciplinary team to assist the resident to achieve specific goals
- 6. The amount of energy produced from the burning of food in the body
- 7. The main source of energy for all body functions; sugars and starches
- 11. Care that focuses on the comfort and dignity of the person in the terminal stages of an illness! Care that affords comfort rather than care
- 12. Inhaling fluids into the lungs
- 14. Using calendars, clocks, signs, and lists to assist resident who are cognitively impaired

- 15. Tube inserted into a surgically created stab or puncture wound in the abdomen for the purpose of providing nourishment, fluids and medication; sometimes called a G-tube
- 17. Palliative care services provided to a resident with a terminal illness
- 19. Bed that has the top linens fan folded to the center of the bed
- 20. Tube inserted into a surgically created opening into the second part of the small intestines for the purpose of providing nourishment, fluids and medications
- 21. Bluish discoloration of the skin, mucous membranes, lips or nails due to lack of sufficient oxygen in the blood

- 5. To expel the contents of the stomach in small amounts, short of vomiting
- 8. Written document stating a person wishes about healthcare when that person can no longer make his/her wishes known
- 9. Condition in which the body is unable to handle the amount of fluids consumed
- 10. Organic compounds obtained from food necessary for health and normal body functioning
- 13. Compounds found in the diet or dietary supplements that builds and regulate body fluids, promote bone and tooth formation and influence nerve and muscle function
- 16. Abbreviation for Gastro Esophageal Reflux Disease
- 18. Complex compound found in all living matter the promotes growth and repair of tissue

Down

- 1. Process by which the body takes in nourishment
- 3. Professionals from each discipline within the healthcare facility who meet, discuss, and plan the care of the resident

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|----------|-----------------------------|------------------|------------------|
| Minerals | Carbohydrates | Open bed | Jejunostomy tube |
| Cyanotic | Interdisciplinary care team | Assignment sheet | Protein |
| Vitamins | Advance Directive | Aspiration | Palliative care |
| Hospice | Draw sheet | Nutrition | Calorie |
| PEG tube | Reality Orientation | Fluid overload | Regurgitate |
| GERD | | | |