

Name: _____

Date: _____

CNS Pharm Crossword

Across

5. A drug used for managing seizures

11. Tongue, jaw, eye, neck muscle spasms are known as _____ movements

12. The most common hydantoin adverse reaction

13. Disorder that causes an uncontrolled desire to sleep during daytime hours

15. A permanent, recurrent seizure disorder

16. This CNS stimulant has several effects on the body including: anxiety, restlessness, headache, insomnia, ringing in the ears, seizures, frequent urination, nausea, tachycardia and arrhythmias.

17. An emergency situation due to constant seizure activity is called: status _____

19. A disease that causes progressive loss of mental and physical abilities

20. Parkinson Disease is thought to be caused from a low level of this

Down

1. The term used to describe a drug that can produce liver damage

2. A loss of control over voluntary movements especially gait

3. Drugs used to treat exogenous obesity, narcolepsy, and ADHD

4. Due to Parkinson's over production of acetylcholine, this class of drugs are often used as adjunctive therapy.

6. General term used to describe a decrease in cognitive functioning

7. Drugs that are used that decrease the desire to eat

8. SERIOUS Adverse reaction with abnormal material in the blood with signs such as bleeding from the mucous membranes

9. Common Cholinesterase drug used to treat Alzheimer disease

10. Drugs that excite the respiratory center

14. Natural chemical in the brain required for thinking and remembering

18. Most commonly prescribed drug used to control seizures