

COVID-19 Alexander

Across

- 2. A branch of medicine which deals with the incidence, distribution, and possible control of diseases and other factors relating to health.
- 4. the action of keeping something harmful under control or within limits.
- 8. A biological preparation that provides active acquired immunity to a particular infectious disease.
- 9. To relieve (a person or animal) of the symptoms of a disease or condition.
- 10. the rapid spread of disease to a large number of people in a given population within a short period of time.

Down

- 1. A physical or mental feature which is regarded as indicating a condition of disease
- 3. a disorder of structure or function in a human, animal, or plant, especially one that produces specific signs or symptoms or that affects a specific location and is not simply a direct result of physical injury.
- 5. (Of a disease) prevalent over a whole country or the wt
- 6. A submicroscopic infectious agent that replicates only inside the living cells of an organism.
- 7. (of a disease or disease-causing organism) likely to be transmitted to people