

COVID-19 Velasco

Across

2. the branch of medicine which deals with the incidence, distribution, and other factors relating to health.

3. a disorder or structure or function in a human, animal, or plant, especially one that produces specific signs or symptoms or that affects a specific location and is not simply a direct result of physical injury.

6. a treatment with a vaccine to produce immunity against a disease; inoculation.

7. prevalent over a whole country or the world.

8. a physical or mental feature which is regarded as indicating a condition of disease, particularly such a feature that is apparent to the patient.

10. an infective agent that typically consists of a nucleic acid molecule in a protein coat, is too small to be seen by light microscope, and is able to multiply only within the living cells of a host.

Down

1. a widespread occurrence of an infectious disease in a community at a particular time.

4. the action of keeping something harmful under control or within limits.

5. likely to be transmitted to people, organisms, etc through the environment.

9. relieve of a symptoms of a disease or condition.