

Name: _____

Date: _____

CROSSWORD - THE BOOK THIEF

Across

3. A hazy atmosphere that can cause darkness or feelings of gloominess due to thick mist
5. Warm and pleasantly cheerful
11. Never ending or changing
12. A feeling of revulsion or loath or distaste for someone or something
14. When you hesitate, sway or tremble with indecision
16. Having accepted something unpleasant that one cannot do anything about
17. walk or move without intention or reluctance
19. Something done consciously and intentionally

20. Someone who comes across as approachable or to have/display a friendly or pleasant manner
21. Showing a great deal of variety
22. Your emotions, your regional accent, or just the particular way you're used to speaking can all affect the _____ of your voice
- ## Down
1. An inner force that drives you to do something unexpected or spontaneous
2. An emphatic declaration in response to doubt or accusation
4. To act nervously
6. Burst or exploded
7. An impressive display/arrangement or variety of a particular type of thing

8. The ability to adapt to new or different situations or circumstances
9. To prevent or hold back - making it difficult for someone or something to happen
10. A feeling of fear or anxiety about something that may happen
13. Hitler was obsessed with an idea which involved having a new image for the future of Germany
15. When a person is good natured or friendly
18. This action is what a bird will usually do in relation to sitting upon or resting on something