

Name: _____

Date: _____

CU2 IU6 - The First Presidents

Across

2. a proposal to the government that called for taxes on imports, federally funded transportation projects, and a new national bank

5. George Washington's parting message to the nation, given in 1796, in which he warned of threats to the nation's future

9. the theory that rights not specifically given to the federal government by the Constitution remain with the states

14. a policy of avoiding political or military agreements with other countries

16. to refuse to recognize a federal law

17. the crime of encouraging rebellion against the government

18. to withdraw from an organization or alliance

19. a closing off of an area to keep people or supplies from going in or out

21. a broad interpretation of the Constitution

22. a government order that forbids trade with another country

23. an employee of the government

Down

1. the removal of Cherokee Indians from Georgia to Indian Territory in 1838 and 1839

3. a narrow interpretation of the Constitution

4. unexplored wilderness at the edge of the country

6. a religious folk song of African American origin

7. a revolt by farmers in 1794 against an excise tax on whiskey

8. the idea that the common people should control the government

10. a tax imposed by the government on goods imported from another country

11. the practice of rewarding political supporters with government jobs

12. a policy of not choosing sides in a dispute or war between other countries

13. President James Monroe's declaration in 1823 that the Western Hemisphere was no longer open to European colonization

15. art made by ordinary people (as opposed to trained artists) using traditional methods

20. an economic system based on the private ownership of farms and businesses