

CYBER-SECURITY

Across

3. A Virus that encrypts your data and you have to pay to receive the encryption key.

6. Meaning of "A" in acronym OODA

9. Malware that replicates rapidly to slow a system down to make it crash

12. (TWO WORDS)

What are rapid and regular network patching, internal firewalls, backups secured off-line, and dual factor authentication a part of?

13. (TWO WORDS)

What you should do if you see ANY anomaly

15. Hardware or software used in an attempt to block cyber attacks (word also used in fire prevention).

16. Best method to address unwanted links and emails

17. E-mail name based on discussing meat product

Down

1. New upgrade for KRGC that allows for users to use any Wi-Fi and any safe website as it encrypts user activity and keeps activity behind a cloud.

2. The technique of sneaking in a security door behind someone who is authorized (Name also used to describe what is done before football games in the parking lot).

4. E-mail address to report Cyber-Security concerns

5. Software that is designed to interfere with a computer's normal functioning and that can be used to commit cybercrime.

7. Meaning of second "O" in acronym OODA

8. (TWO WORDS) A program that surfs the web has artificial intelligence to hack networks

10. Meaning of first "O" in acronym OODA

11. Meaning of "D" in acronym OODA

14. (TWO WORDS) When someone uses your personal information to obtain gain.