

C++ functions

Across

5. Type of parameters declared during function definition
6. We use an ... sign for reference parameters
8. Functions are made up of prototypes, implementations and ...
10. Function prototypes are made up of the return type, function name and ...
12. You can either pass a parameter either by value or by ...

13. Value returning functions return only ... value at a time
14. The type of parameters you pass a function during a function call

Down

1. You pass a parameter by reference, you give the function the ...
2. Value return functions return values using the keyword ...
3. There are two types of functions in c++, namely are void and ... functions

4. A function prototype is the same as a function ...

7. Two types of parameters include actual and ... parameters

9. Function that return no value at all or returns more than one value

11. A c++ program must at lest have ... function