

Call of the Wild by: Jack London

Across

2. The state or condition of being superior to all others in power, authority, or status.
 7. Close familiarity or friendship; closeness.
 8. (especially of a person's manner or actions) Insisting on immediate attention or obedience, especially in a brusquely imperious way.
 9. Suffering or death caused by hunger.
 10. Something done in an overbearing way, or with a feeling of superiority.

11. The phenomena of the physical world collectively, including plants, the landscape, and other features and products of the earth, as opposed to humans or human creations.

Down

1. The activity of killing wild animals or game, especially for food or sport.
 3. Showing no mercy or pity.
 4. (of an animal, force, or nature) Fierce, violent, and uncontrolled.
 5. Existing at or from the beginning of time; primeval.
 6. Organisms that have a diet that consists mostly or entirely of meat.