

Camping

Across

5. people who manage and guide dog sled teams, especially in dog sled races.

7. an area that is away from developed or populated areas.

9. members of a kingdom of somewhat plantlike organisms that often grow on or feed off of other organic material; they include mold and mushrooms.

10. Heat used for cooking.

12. Very large brown bear, Native to North America

13. A placed use or suitable for camping.

14. an activity in which people use a map and compass to find their way through an unfamiliar area.

Down

1. person who camps out for recreation especially in the wilderness.

2. primate mammals that usually walk on two legs; refers to humans and extinct human ancestors.

3. people who climb mountains for sport or recreational purposes.

4. a class of animal including spiders, scorpions, ticks, and mites; usually having two distinct body segments and eight legs.

6. a collective grouping of plant life, especially leafy branches, plants, and flowers.

8. Out of doors; in the open air
11. Outside world including plants, animals, landscape, and other features and products of Earth.