

Name: _____

Date: _____

Cardiac

Across

- 2. What diuretic blocks the action of aldosterone?
- 4. A client with hyperkalemia may have _____.
- 6. A client's urine output is less than 30mL/hour. What would you expect is going on?
- 8. What medication is used to treat angina pectoris and hypertension?
- 9. A client experiencing yellow-green halos would likely be taking what med?

- 10. What medication needs the nurse to monitor blood pressure for 2-6 hours after initial dose?
- 12. Name a food high in potassium.
- 13. What can reverse cyanide poisoning in a client receiving nitroprusside?

Down

- 1. 3.5-5.0 is a normal lab value for what electrolyte?

- 3. What classification of medications do I need to monitor blood pressure for 2 hours after the initial dose?
- 5. Bradycardia can indicate toxicity when taking what medication?
- 7. 1.5ng/mL is a therapeutic level for what med?
- 11. What condition is contraindicated when taking propranolol?

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|---------------|-----------|-------------|--------------|---------------|
| Potassium | asthma | digoxin | Spirolactone | Dehydration |
| digoxin | verapamil | Thiosulfate | prazosin | muscle cramps |
| ACE inhibitor | potato | Nifedipine | | |