

Cardiac Crossword

Across

2. How often are electrodes routinely changed?
3. If your patient is on telemetry and is traveling off the unit, who do you notify?
6. What position is best to have a patient in while doing an ECG?
8. The limb leads must _____ each other

9. Dextrocardia situs inversus is when the heart is on the _____ side of the body
10. V4-V6 are in the _____ intercostal space
12. V6 is placed on the _____ line
13. Avoid placing electrodes on _____
14. V1 goes in the _____ Intercostal Space

Down

1. Electrode misplacement may mimic a _____
4. Place electrodes _____ breast tissue
5. For hairy patients we prefer to _____ their hair
7. When the ECG reading has interference from movement, it is called what?
11. How many leads are used for telemetry?