

Cardiovascular System

Across

3. This can happen if parts of the heart muscle die from lack of blood.

7. This "gunk" builds in up arteries of people with bad eating habits and high cholesterol.

10. Someone with diabetes has a high amount of _____ in their blood.

11. This gas is carried by red blood cells and delivered to tissues.

12. What is the muscular organ that pumps blood throughout the body?

13. A blood clot in the brain is called a _____.

14. These have large, thick walls to withstand high blood pressure.

15. This is the word that means sticky and thick.

Down

1. The heart is about the size of your clenched _____.

2. What are the thinnest blood vessels?

4. This word means hardening of the arteries.

5. When the heart contracts, it produces a force against the walls of vessels called blood _____.

6. These contain valves so that blood travels in only one direction.

8. Drinking this substance can cause high blood pressure.

9. This is how many chambers the heart has.