

Name: _____

Date: _____

Care Transitions

Across

5. How can you assess that your teaching to a patient/caregiver is effective? ( 2 words)
6. A care transition period used by nurses everyday? (2 words)
7. Where is a good place to look for information captured during transition from one facility to another?
8. A reliable communication template used at admission to learn about current and past important patient information.
9. What is a comprehensive way to share information as a patient transitions from hospital to home? (2 words)

10. CARE binders, rounding and reporting are all effective ways to do what?

Down

1. An important safety detail that should be shared at every handover? (2 words)
2. A group setting of team members used to discuss patients goals and care plans.
3. A meeting used to discuss a care plan/discharge with patients and caregivers? ( 2 words)
4. Aside from the patient, who is it important to share information with during care transitions?