

Career Opportunities Final Exam Review Part 1

Across

3. post-secondary institution is also known as a vocational/technical school. It is where students are learning a specific career such as: Welding or HVAC.

5. A master of divinity degree is associated with what professions?

11. This designation shows that you have legal authority to work in an occupation. It is usually awarded by a governmental agency

13. This is known as taking your associate's degree to another college to finish up your bachelor's degree, or move from one college to another

15. This designation is awarded by an organization or institution and is considered voluntary. Not legally required to work

16. This degree is awarded by a college or university. You must have a bachelor's degree to begin this study. Usually study will be career specific.

17. A Juris Doctor Degree is earned for what profession?

18. This is a long essay on a particular subject. Usually written to earn either a master's degree or a doctoral degree

19. This type of institution awards associate's degrees and bachelor's degrees.

20. This is the amount of money an individual should be able to earn in his or her career.

Down

1. This type of degree can be earned in two years. Students will attend a community college or a junior college to earn it

2. This type of education is continued on after you graduate from high school.

4. Quizzes like the ones we took at the beginning of the school year are known as?

6. This type of learning is where a student is taught by a teacher but does not usually take classes with other students every day.

7. This type of degree is awarded by a college or university. You must have a bachelor's degree to begin study. It is the highest academic degree you can earn

8. This is known as the ability to use one's time effectively or productively, usually at work.

9. This type of institution is provided funding from the state government. An example would be the University of Missouri

10. This type of institution awards master's degrees and doctoral degrees

12. This is known as the process of building and utilizing professional relationships.

14. This type of degree is awarded by colleges and universities upon completion of course study. Usually takes 4 years to earn