

Career Vocab

Across

2. The total amount of your pay or wages before any deductions are taken out of your paycheck
 3. Knowledge or skill that one gets from doing, seeing or feeling something
 5. The amount of pay or wages you take home after all your deductions are taken out of your paycheck
 8. The chance to do something you want to do, advance, or progress

10. An ability, characteristic or experience that makes you suitable for a particular job

13. How important or useful something is
 14. An amount of money taken from your paycheck every payday

Down

1. Things that employers may offer you in addition to your wages
 4. A person who knows you and is willing to describe and usually praise you to support you when you are trying to get a job

6. A form used to apply for a job

7. A short written description of your education, qualifications, and previous employment, which you send to an employer when you are trying to get a job
 9. Employment; the regular work a person does to earn money
 11. The ability to do an activity or job well
 12. A profession for which one trains; a job or series of job that you do during your working life