

Careers - Who are you?

Across

2. Your _____ is what makes you different from everyone else.

5. _____ skills are the skills necessary to do a particular job.

6. _____ is your general outlook on life.

8. A/An _____ is a skill you have already developed.

9. A/An _____ is the ability to perform a task due to training and experience.

11. The different ways people naturally think and learn are called _____ styles.

12. Knowing your thoughts, feelings, and actions is _____.

Down

1. _____ skills are general skills used in school and in various types of jobs.

3. _____ is the practical use of scientific knowledge (ideas, methods, tools, and materials) to get things done.

4. A/An _____ is your potential to learning a skill.

7. _____ are your favorite activities.

10. _____ are what you believe are important.

Word Bank

attitude

interests

technology

self awareness

transferable

learning

ability

skill

values

job specific

personality

aptitude