

Caring for Your Brain

Across

3. a Greek philosopher from Athens who is credited as one of the founders of Western philosophy
5. experience, knowledge, and good judgment
7. assistance
8. coordinating center of sensation and intellectual and nervous activity
10. a strong feeling of wanting to have something or wishing for something to happen

Down

1. an educational institution designed to provide learning spaces and learning environments for the teaching of students under the direction of teachers
2. become more mature, advanced, or elaborate
4. commit to memory
6. give intellectual, moral, and social instruction
9. lack of experience, wisdom, or judgment