

Carpentry 1

Across

2. The vertical side of a window or door frame
 8. A length of timber or metal with at least one edge truly straight
 11. Name of a person who works with wood
 12. The vertical wooden posts within a timber frame wall
 15. Short length of wood, round in section used to join pieces of lumber

16. A diagonal member used to support an object from sagging

Down

1. flexible compound used to seal joints
 3. vertical member on each side of a framed door or window sash
 4. The surface beneath a floor usually of concrete or timber
 5. A horizontal or vertical strut used to make a paneled door or window frame

6. A cut which runs across the grain of wood

7. A manufactured building board made from compressed and glued wooden particles
 9. people who build houses
 10. What tool is used to punch holes in leather or wood
 13. A safety item that all carpenters should wear
 14. A manufactured building board with many layers