

Cases

Across

3. A case used for s55(4)
5. The case used to illustrate loss of control need not be sudden
8. The case used to illustrate sexual infidelity
9. The case that illustrates that a brain stem dead person is not classed as a human being
10. The case that illustrates implied malice for murder

Down

1. The case that defines abnormality of mental functioning
2. A case used to illustrate battered persons syndrome
4. The case that recognises depression as a medically recognised condition
6. The case that defines substantial impairment
7. The case used to illustrate the last element of loss of control