

Ch.22. Comparative Political Systems Vocab

Across

1. A temporary alliance of several groups who come together to form a working majority and so to control the government

6. Independent.

9. The process of reviewing lists of registered voters and removing the names of those no longer eligible to vote

14. A special election held to choose a replacement for a member of parliament

15. A government lead by a hereditary ruler

16. A person with both Spanish and Portuguese and Native American ancestry.

17. The Soviet policy of openness under which tolerance of dissent and freedom of expression increased.

18. The delegations of authority from the central government to regional government

Down

2. Members of opposition parties who watch, or shadow , particular cabinet members

3. Begun in 1966, Mao Tse Tung's Red Guards attacked, bullied, and reeducated teachers, intellectuals, and anyone else who seemed to lack revolutionary fervor.

4. General agreement between various groups on fundamental matters

5. The government acquisition of private industry for public use.

7. The recruiting of political and economic life under the rule of Mikhail Gorbachev.

8. The power of the Prime Minister to dissolve the House of Representatives

10. Cabin members of the House of Commons

11. The 47 political subdivisions into which Japan is divided

12. A government council, elected by and representing the people

13. An agreement which removed trade restrictions among the United States, Canada, and Mexico