

Ch 1 Lord of the Flies vocab

Across

- 3. a feeling of righteous anger
- 5. a theory or argument made up of miscellaneous
- 9. loud and persistent outcry from many people
- 10. a body of water cut off from a larger body by a reef of sand or coral

- 12. drain that allows water on the deck of a vessel to flow overboard
- 13. the act of vibrating
- 14. to no avail, produces no result
- 15. to insert between other elements

Down

- 1. optical device consisting of a surface with parallel grooves in it

- 2. unpleasantly loud and harsh
- 4. dignity and good taste in manners and conduct
- 6. unnatural lack of color in the skin
- 7. eat greedily
- 8. an awkward climb
- 11. reflect deeply on a subject

Word Bank

- |             |           |          |         |           |
|-------------|-----------|----------|---------|-----------|
| indignation | vainly    | decorous | lagoon  | scupper   |
| clamor      | interpose | clamber  | grating | devour    |
| quiver      | pallor    | strident | jumble  | speculate |