

Ch. 20 The Gilded Age

Across

2. political party composed primarily of white southern, northern city marching politicians and immigrants
 4. people choosing to live outside their native country
 8. supported reform of spoils system
 12. favored tariffs
 14. political cartoonist who ridiculed Tweed
 16. restored prestige of presidency by his reforms
 17. republican reform president
 19. pre-Civil War time period
 20. Highest tariff in history

21. influential newspaper publisher
 22. sensationalized style of reporting news

Down

1. pay-off to politicians by dishonest contractors
 3. political party composed primarily of New Englanders, western farmers and merchants, eastern business people
 5. official thievery, such as bribes, kickbacks, and influence peddling
 6. his assassination focused attention on spoils system
 7. opposed tariffs

9. popular local colorist writer (HINT: Huckleberry Fin)
 10. irrelevant amendments used to force presidents to accept legislation they otherwise oppose
 11. style that depicted ordinary life as it is
 13. party organization that help power by controlling votes
 15. Boss of Tammany Hal, New York's political machine
 18. people paid to represent company or special interest group

Word Bank

riders tweed
 Joseph Pulitzer
 Arthur
 Mark Twain

Cleveland
 Yellow journalism
 democrats Expatriates
 free traders

protectionists
 Hayes
 kickback
 Political machine

Garfield
 antebellum Republicans
 lobbyists

realism
 Thomas Nast
 McKinley Tariff
 graft