

Name: _____ Date: _____

Ch. 7 Skin Structure, Growth & Nutrition

- | | |
|---|------------------------|
| 1. study of skin | A. dermatology |
| 2. person who specializes in skin care | B. callus |
| 3. largest organ of the human body & weighs 6-9 pounds | C. subcutaneous tissue |
| 4. slightly moist, soft, and flexible | D. sudoriferous glands |
| 5. thickened skin that must be completely removed by a doctor | E. skin |
| 6. outer most & thinnest layer of skin with 5 layers | F. dermis |
| 7. known as the true skin, located below the epidermis | G. melanin |
| 8. adipose tissue below dermis- adipose tissue- gives shape to the body | H. sunscreen |
| 9. clear fluid- removes toxins, helps with immune functions against disease | I. healthy skin |
| 10. tiny grains of pigment that give skin its color | J. sebaceous glands |
| 11. gives red to yellow color to skin--hair | K. pheomelanin |
| 12. gives dark brown to black color to skin--hair | L. Lymph |
| 13. SPF 15 or higher to help protect skin daily | M. esthetician |
| 14. sweat glands | N. eumelanin |
| 15. oil glands-- secrete sebum | O. epidermis |