

Chapter 10 Vocabulary

Across

2. the earliest homo species, showed the first substantial increase in brain size

3. a later pre-australopithecine species from the late miocene to early pliocene, evidence of bipedalism and arboreal activity

6. walking on two feet

10. an early australopithecine species from the late miocene to the early pliocene; shows evidence of prehoning complex

11. the oldest species of Australopithecus from East Africa

12. the stone tool culture associated with H. habilis, including primitive chopper tools

13. trait in which the canines are smaller and more blunt

Down

1. the oldest part of the period during which the first stone tools were created and used beginning with the oldowan complex

4. an early australopithecine from East Africa that had a brain size equivalent to a modern chimp

5. a gracile australopithecine from south africa

7. robust australopithecine from east africa, had large teeth, face, and heavy muscle attachments

8. a robust australopithecine from South Africa, contemporaneous with boisei

9. one of the most significant fossils, 40% complete skeleton of an adult female Au.afarensis