

Chapter 10 - Intelligence

Across

7. The ability to observe aspects of the natural environment

9. The ability to write, do math, and understand literature

10. The creation of novel solutions to problems

11. The ability to understand oneself

12. Relies on implicit memories and learned responses; skills which guide our actions

13. The knowing of facts and the ability to combine and use them

14. The ability to use language well

Down

1. The ability to manipulate abstract symbols

2. The ability to understand other people and social interactions

3. The ability to understand and regulate emotions effectively

4. The ability to plan and understand sequences of movements

5. The ability to reason and solve problems

6. The ability to reason spacial relations

8. The ability to compose and understand music