

Chapter 12. Organ Donation - Tissues, Organs, and Organ Systems

Across

3. muscle is _____ tissue (capable of shortening)
4. _____ (2 words) occurs when the product of the process intensifies the process. (Example: child birth)
6. a blood clot getting stuck in a blood vessel supplying the heart
7. regulation of body temperature
8. food is absorbed in the bloodstream by small finger-like projections called _____
9. group of similar cell types that perform a common function

10. the esophagus transports food to stomach by rhythmic waves of muscle contractions called _____

11. tightly packed sheets of cells that line organs and outer surfaces, as well as the insides of hollow organs, vessels, and body cavities

Down

1. _____ (2 words) occurs when the product of the process inhibits the process. (Example: blood glucose regulation by insulin)
2. it usually binds organs or tissues to one another
5. an organism's ability to maintain relative constant internal conditions