

Chapter 12

Across

6. True/False. When program planning, it is important to evaluate past programs.

8. Describes research for new insights and innovative solutions to health problems

9. During which phase of the process of care are the needs addressed and prioritized?

10. What is the phase of the process of care that identifies the specific dental needs?

Down

1. At what stage in the process of care is the treatment actually performed?

2. Involves making certain that all populations have access to appropriate and cost-effective services to reach agreed on public health goals

3. What program is designed to prevent disease in a target population?

4. A team of health care providers that provide surgery globally

5. If a patient requires further treatment, at which stage should this referral be obtained?

7. the process by which society makes decisions about problems, choose goals, and strategies to reach them, and allocate resources

Word Bank

assessment

Serving all functions

Policy Development

Prevention program

Planning

True

Dental Hygiene Diagnosis

Assurance

Operation Smile

Implementation