

Chapter 12 vocab

Across

- 4. what is the jurisdiction called in witch the federal courts may hear and decide cases?
- 5. What is another name for the courts calendar?
- 9. Who arrests suspects, delivers defendants to court, and serves people with subpoenas?
- 12. What courts are of lower authority?
- 14. Usually the associate justice, who voted with majority, writes the _____ opinion.
- 16. A _____ means to return a case to the lower court for a different trail.
- 17. _____ means in conflict with the constitution.
- 19. What is the case in witch two sides disagree over an issue?
- 21. Federal courts of appeals have only _____ jurisdiction?

- 22. The courts of _____ are above the district courts in the federal court system.
- 25. What opinion do the justices write if they disagree with the majority?
- 26. An _____ is a name for opposing sides in court.

Down

- 1. What is a particular graphical area called?
- 2. What kind of review sees if federal or state laws agree with the constitution?
- 3. What is the jurisdiction in witch federal courts and state share the jurisdiction called?
- 6. The writ of _____ is requested by the court for most appeals.
- 7. A _____ - _____ is a trail before a panel for military officers.
- 8. A justice who agrees with the majority but has different reasons why, writes a _____ opinion.

- 10. Who issues court orders and hears the preliminary evidence in a case to determine whether the case should be brought to trial or not?
- 11. _____ are written arguments.
- 13. What is the jurisdiction called in witch authority is able to hear cases for the first time?
- 15. What is the authority to hear and decide a case called?
- 18. What is the case in witch a jury decides whether people have committed crimes?
- 20. What is a complaint that the first person makes to court called?
- 23. What is the court order called when someone is required to appear in court?
- 24. What are the federal courts where trials are held and lawsuits begin called?